

~~319 BC~~
310 BC

Agathocles defeated in Sicily,
invades Africa

3/04/230HC

---

Irish A.R. STARCHUS of Seville
suggested that the earth
and other planets moved around
the sun.

It was dismissed as absurd.

310 BC

1912 Dates J-BK

LAKE VADIMONIAN, Etruria

The first battle at Vadimonian Lake occurred during the Second Samnite War. The Romans were victorious and as a result the coalition against them was broken up.

Aug. 15, 310 BC

A Carthaginian attack on Sicily was mounted "in the year when Hieronymus was Archon of Athens."

Aug. 15
310 BC

---

Diodorus give the year
as the Anchorship of Hieronemnon
in Athens (310 BC). Just before the time of the eclipse, Agathocles and his fleet of 60 ships were blockaded in Syracuse harbor
by the Carthaginians. They managed to escape in the confusion
when some grain ships arrived

Five days later, A6A71400CES landed near Carthage where he proceeded to attack his enemies' homeland with considerable success. The date of the eclipse was Aug. 15, 310 BC
at about 8 AM.

310BC

AGATHOCLES, dictator of Syracuse,
invades Africa

310 BC

281 BC

283 BC

Great Roman victories in 310 BC and 283 BC broke the Etruscan military resistance and the last Roman triumph over an Etruscan enemy was celebrated in 281 BC.

310 BC

Semrites defeated by Rome
at VADIMONIAN lake